SUGGESTED CHARTER DESTINATIONS IN PHUKET

■ Phi Phi

Phi Phi Islands are the most popular yachts charter destinations. It consists of six small islands 46km south of Phuket. The major ones being Phi Phi Don, which hosts the bohemian town of Phi Phi Islands, and Phi Phi Leh with Maya Bay which featured in the movie "The Beach". Phi Phi Islands are famous for its limestone cliffs rising sheer out of the emerald green waters, white powdery beaches and its many coral reefs offering great diving and snorkeling

■ Krabi Islands

Krabi Islands are located in southern Thailand's west coast facing the Andaman sea. There are over 80 smaller islands such as Ko Lanta and Phi Phi, well-known to adventurers, yachtsmen, scuba-divers, snorkelers, and day-trippers from Phuket. The largest island, Ko Lanta Yai, is the site of park headquarters, and is also home to "Chao Le", or sea gypsies, who sustain themselves largely through fishing. Kayaking, sailing, bird watching, snorkeling are also among top activities

■ Phang Nga Bay

Phang Nga Bay is really a "must see" sight. It is located between Malay Peninsula's mainland and Phuket. Modern culture has turned Phang Nga into an icon for movie buffs around the world. It has become the most famous island in the bay due in part to its roles in a few epic movies. You saw them in movies, even in Star Wars and James Bond. James Bond Island is named after the lead character in the movie it was featured in. There are very few places in the world with a landscape like Phang Nga. The immense limestone cliffs standing everywhere in the bay are the main attraction.

■ Naka Islands

The Naka Islands are just off the northeast coast of Phuket. There are two islands, Koh Naka Yai (big) and Koh Naka Noi (little). NaKa Yai is quite large but rather unknown and still undeveloped. Despite its proximity to the coast of Phuket there is no electricity on the island apart some private generators. Naka Noi is best known for its pearl farm. Several of the day trips boats stop here for a tour of the farm and there is also a shop that sells the pearls.

■ Rang Yai Island

Rang Yai Island is a peaceful island lying about 5 km of the east coast of Phuket. Its western side has a one-km long beach that is frequented in the afternoon by day trippers coming back from visiting the 'hongs' of Phang Nga Bay. Swimmers will notice something unusual about Koh Rang Yai: the southward current gently transports you parallel to the whole length of the beach and the water is almost at body temperature

■ Khai Islands

Khai Islands are popular tiny islands. It is located 10 km east of Phuket. There are 3 islands: Koh Khai Nai, Khai Nai Island and Koh Khai Nok. Two of them (Koh Khai Nai, Khai Nai Island) have become popular for their superb sandy beaches and incredibly clear water. The main draw to Koh Khai is the giant stone arch on the island. There are no resorts or facilities on the island. Visitors may only stay on the island during the day and must stay on other surrounding islands

■ Racha Yai Island

Racha Yai island is best known as excellent diving and snorkelling daytrip destinations. It is located 12 km south of Phuket. Racha Yai is a granite island with beautiful beaches and bays all around and dense tropical jungle covering the interior. There are several dive sites at Racha Yai. Most of those sites are suitable for all levels of diver and Racha Yai is often the location for student divers first open water dives. Visibility is always good and currents mild.

■ Racha Noi Island

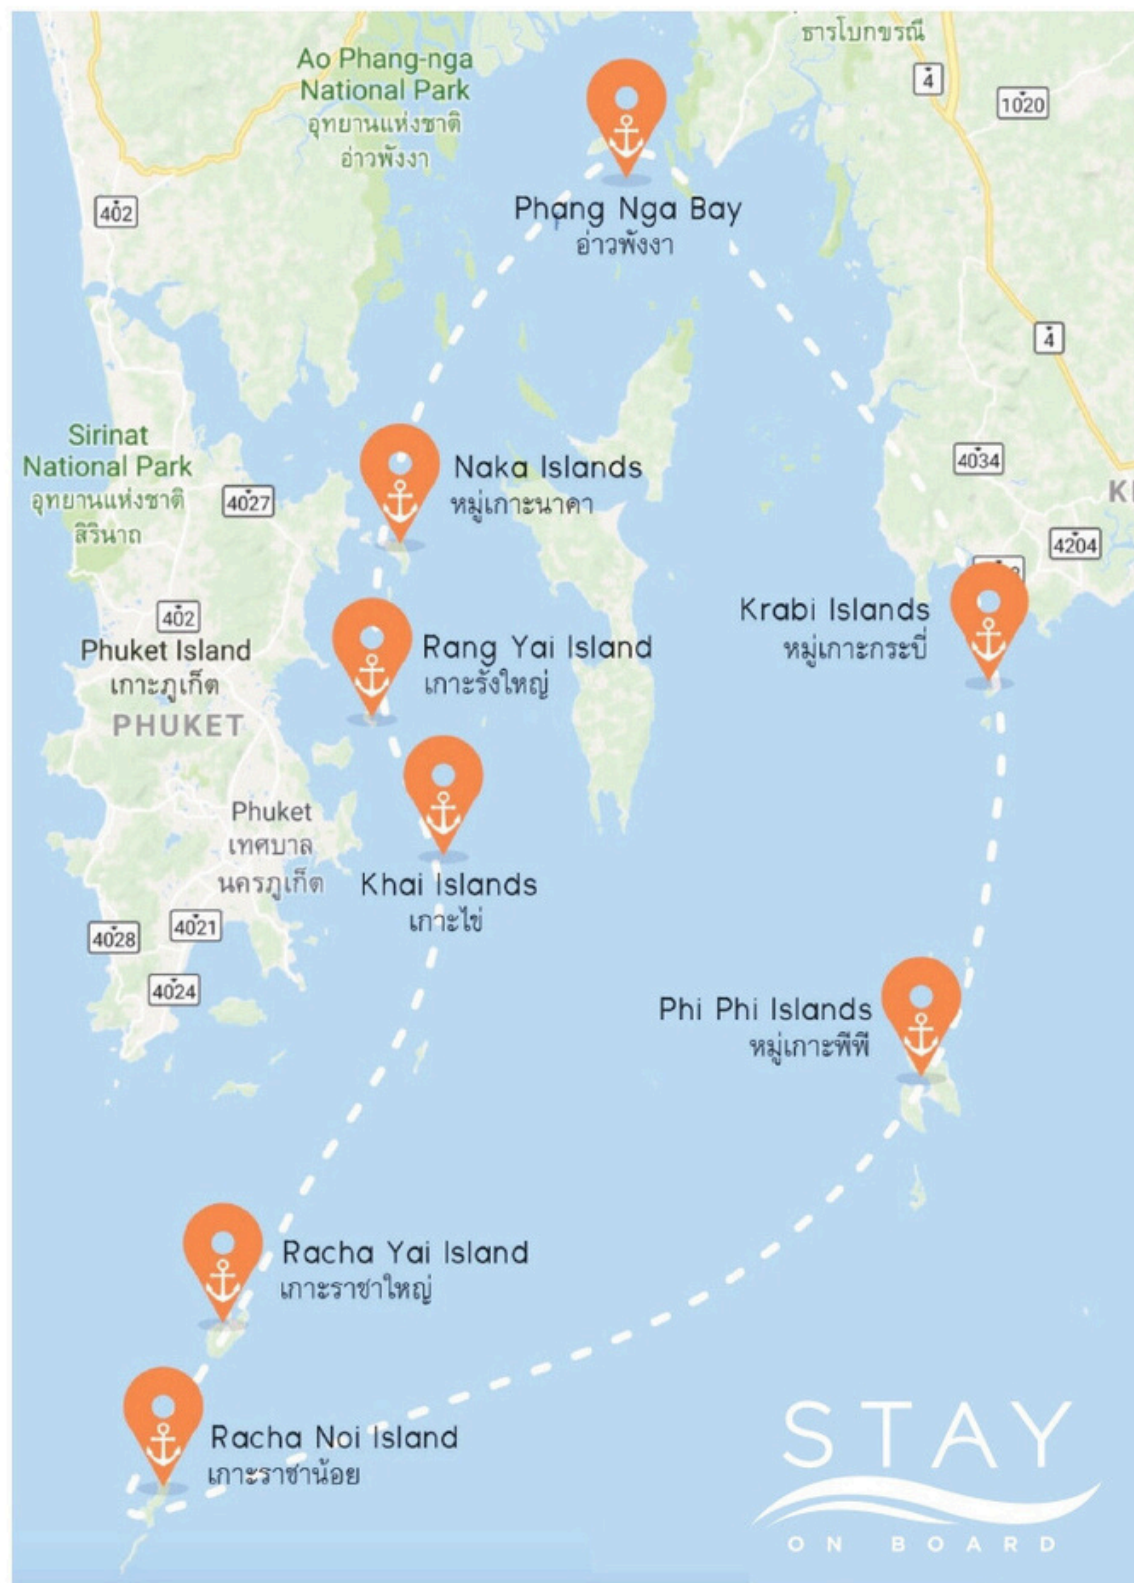

Racha Noi island is Racha Yai's smaller twin located about 40 minutes boat ride further south of Racha Yai island. The diving at Racha Noi is far superior to Racha Yai, it is arguably the best of the local Phuket dive sites. Racha Noi is a long thin granite island covered in dense jungle and is uninhabited. There is a range of diving here for experienced and inexperienced divers. Plus some excellent snorkeling opportunities.
